SOCIALDOM.

—Of the many brilliant social events of the season just closing, the card party given Thursday evening at Odd Fellows' Hall by Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Frank and Miss Helen Frank, by far eclipsed them all in every particular. The spacious ball room was covered with many Oriental rugs, hangings of the same design were gracefully draped over windows and doors with the additional decorations of cut glass vases and bowls of cut flowers here and there on pedestals and tables, in fact every nook and corner was banked with vines, potted plants, handsome ferns and foliage of every description, making a scene fit for "ye lords and ladies of yesteryear." A Louisville harpist furnished music during the entire evening.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Frank, Miss Frank, Miss Askew, guest of Miss Frank, Miss Matilda Alexander, Mr. Clarence Kenney and Mr. Jim Buckner. Mrs. Frank was handsomely gowned in champagne-nob, voile over blue with trimming and girle of blue panne. Miss Frank was beautiful in a gown of grey silk acolin over pink silk.

Miss Clay Croxton and Miss Lucy Buckner assisted in entertaining and also marked the games.

Five elegant prizes were awarded. First gentleman's prize, a stylish silver and gold stein, was won by Mr. Duncan Bell. The first ladies' prize, a silver and cut glass hair pin holder, was won by Miss Lizzette Dickson. The visitors' prize, a pretty pearl lace pin, was won by Olive Fant. Mr. W. E. Board was the lucky married man who won first prize, which was a cut glass champagne goblet, and Mrs. E. M. Dickson was the fortunate winner of the married ladies' prize. It was a cut glass individual salt cellar.

After the games a delightful luncheon was served.

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Sarah E. Isbel, widow of the noted Baptist minister, Rev. E. D. Isbel, died near Nevada, Mo. She was born in Paris, 77 years ago, and was a daughter of Jacob Wheat, of this county. She leaves one child, Harvey W. Isbel, County Clerk of Kenton county. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Ellen C. Wood and Mrs. Narcissa Wood, of Paris.

—After a long and painful illness, Mrs. J. A. Wilson, in the still hours of the night of April 15th, the pure and gentle spirit of one of earth's loveliest women went to rest in a home where sickness and sorrow are no more. In the home life which she so beautifully adorned, comes the greatest loss, and in every relation in life, as neighbor and friend, her presence will be greatly missed. The funeral services were held at the residence on Sunday afternoon, and the large assembly of sympathizing relatives and friends testified to the high regard in which she was held. One peculiarly sweet and beautiful feature of this service was the singing of Mrs. Princess Long, whose voice had so cheered and strengthened Mrs. Wilson in her illness. Under a bunch of roses and lilies in our beautiful cemetery now sleeps all that was mortal of this friend of our soul, while her spirit rests in the bosom of her Lord.

Mrs. Wilson was 53 years of age and is survived by her husband, Mr. Joseph A. Wilson, her mother, Mrs. Amelia A. Barclay, of Paris, and one brother, Jas. O. Barclay, of Cincinnati, and one son, James B. Wilson. Among those attending from a distance were, Mrs. Mary Bryan, Dr. Frank Bryan, Sr., Frank Bryan, Jr., of Georgetown; Claude Paxton and wife, of Mr. Sterling; Mr. Frank and Miss Emma Mitchell, of Nicholasville; Mr. Frank Johnson, of Lexington; J. O. Barclay, of Cincinnati, and Mr. Geo. Moore, of Shelbyville.

—Elizabeth Rankin Lail, the 3-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lail, died of pneumonia, Friday, at Kiserion. The remains were buried at the Ruddles Mills cemetery.
